How to Move To & Live in Nice

- 1. Visa and Residency: Research visa requirements; a long-stay visa is needed for non-EU citizens.
- 2. Housing: Begin with short-term rentals while exploring neighborhoods like Musiciens, Libération, Carabacel, Cimiez, or Old Town (Vieux Nice).
    - If you remain in Nice, engage a mail forwarding service or have a friend or relative forward mail to you. Not just a post box or store-front office service, but a real
- 3. Banking: Open a French bank account for local transactions.
    - Keep your old bank with your home address or new forwarding address.
    - Keep your credit cards current
    - Keep your checkbook with enough checks
    - Upgrade credit cards to Premium Rewards like cash-back or points; even if you must pay a yearly fee.

    - While you're still in your home country, open a local account with Wise or Revolut.
        - Order at least one debit card and
        - At least one virtual card.

- Healthcare

- 4. Driving: You can use your home driving license for 12 months as long as it is valid. After 12 months, you must have a French driving license [1)]
    - Keep it valid the entire 12 months
    - Before the 12 months expiration, you must convert to a French Driving License. France has reciprocal agreements with only 18 specific US states, meaning only licenses issued by these states can be exchanged for a French license without retaking the written or practical driving tests. These eligible states are Arkansas, Colorado, Connecticut, Delaware, Florida, Idaho, Illinois, Iowa, Maryland, Massachusetts, Michigan, New Hampshire, Ohio, Oklahoma, Pennsylvania, South Carolina, Texas, Virginia, and Washington DC.  12 months will be verified because you will need a short-term visa to remain in France

- 4. Language: Enroll in French language classes to ease integration.

- 5. Utilities: Arrange for electricity, water, and internet services; assistance from relocation agencies can be helpful.

- 6. Reference: Ma French Life Excellent reference for moving and living in France; A to Z details.

Support Groups for Expatriates

- Internations Nice: A popular platform for expats to connect and find social events.
